Pinarayi sits pretty on his home turf

SHAJU PHILIP
Dharmadam, April 6

AT MYLULLIMOTTA VILLAGE, election posters hanging from coconut trunks and plastered onto roadside walls all say one thing: "Moonnam varavu (the third coming)." The posters carry the image of the man who wants to make a third term, for both him and the ruling Left Democratic Front, a reality: Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan.

The image on the posters at Mylullimotta, as at other parts of Vijayan's Dharmadam constituency in Kerala's Kannur district, has him seated in a chair — in a carefully composed frame that seeks to convey power and control.

At around 5 pm on Monday, people started making their way to the village square, where Vijayan would soon address an election rally. Aro-und one kilometre away, party workers were marching to the village — men wearing shirts with Vijayan's face printed on them, and women clutching short cut-outs of the CPI(M) stalwart with his clenched fist in the air.

At the village square, TV actor Jayakrishnan was speaking about the achievements of the LDF government with regard to the development of roads and in the health sector, when an announcement echoed from a distance: "Our beloved candidate, Comrade Viyan, is coming." The crowd began shouting slogans, welcoming Vijayan, and the actor abruptly ended his speech.

Vijayan arrived in an SUV, and as he stepped out, party workers, still raising slogans, jostled around the vehicle, with many trying to capture selfies with the Chief Minister. His security staff quickly ushered him onto the stage.

After being garlanded by a local leader, Vijayan got directly down to business,

Pinarayi Vijayan at a campaign event in Dharmadam

addressing the crowd plainly: "Brothers and sisters."

"We are in the last hours of the election campaign. People are looking forward to seeing Kerala surge ahead with development, along with the modern world. We know that 2011-2016 (when the Congress-led United Democratic Front, or UDF, ruled the state) was a dark period for Kerala. Kerala had collapsed then. In 2016, after people voted LDF to power, the state underwent a massive change. The LDF and the government went ahead with development and welfare. We went on to make great progress..." he said.

He went on to speak of how the LDF government steered Kerala through crises. There was little variation in tone, no pauses for effect, and yet the crowd seemed to listen with rapt attention.

He accused the Congress of supporting what he claimed was the BJP-ruled Centre's stance of financially stifling Kerala and not providing the necessary assistance.

"In the 2021 elections (the last Assembly polls), people had decided that there should not be a gap in their journey with the LDF. If the UDF came to power, this journey would have been interrupted..." he said. Expressing confidence of winning a third term, he went on, "The LDF has no worries about this election. The people are with us, and we are going to win the elections with a big majority."

He ended the short address by urging party workers to carry the campaign forward.

While walking back to his vehicle, the crowd again closed in around him with phones raised, each person eager to capture a moment of proximity. After Vijayan left, a group of women suddenly formed a flash mob — a performance that was part of the campaign.

Vijayan, who has represented the constituency since 2016, is in his third electoral contest from Dharmadam, which sent him to the Assembly with a record margin of over 50,000 votes last time. After touring the whole of Kerala and spearheading the LDF's campaign, Vijayan is now in Dharmadam, spending the final stretch of campaigning in his own constituency.

From Mylullimotta, Vijayan made his way to Kappummal, where, ahead of his arrival, a group of women staged a dance performance before the crowd that started filling the ground of a local school.

The upper primary school is a small building with a tiled roof. The only three-storey structure in the village junction was the CPI(M)'s local office, where huge cut-outs were erected with the tagline: "The third coming of the architect of development." When he said the LDF would increase the monthly welfare pension from ₹2,000 to ₹3,000 once voted back to power, the elderly women sitting scattered in the audience burst into applause with beaming faces.

Cong keeps singing to Pakistan's tune: Modi

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Barpeta/Hojai/Dibrugarh, April 6

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Monday said while his government carried out 'Operation Sindoor', the Congress continued to "sing to the tune of" Pakistan.

Addressing rallies in Barpeta, Hojai and Dibrugarh in Assam, Modi also accused the Congress of taking a myopic view on development, while asserting that the BJP focuses on long-term growth.

"The party always took short-term measures so that they could indulge in corruption. But the BJP looks far ahead while taking decisions for all-around development of all sections of the society," he said.

The PM alleged that during the 2016 surgical strikes or the 2025 'Operation Sindoor', the Congress has always sung to Pakistan's tune, giving importance to their agenda.

"This Pakistan connection always weighs heavily on the country, and we can never allow that."

Modi also accused the Congress of neglecting the Army by refusing to implement the 'One Rank, One Pension' for the veterans for decades. "But the BJP government ensured that justice was done to those who protect the nation by giving them this benefit," he said, adding that so far, ₹1.24 lakh crore has been disbursed to the bank accounts of veterans.

Modi accused the Gandhi family of indulging in dynastic politics and corruption. "The first family of Congress is the most corrupt in the country, indulging in scams of huge proportions and is currently out on bail. The Congress can do only two things — tell lies and indulge in corruption."

Prime Minister Narendra Modi

POLL POSITION

Rahul calls Modi, Vijayan 'arrogant'

CONGRESS LEADER RAHUL Gandhi on Monday launched a scathing attack on Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan, calling them "arrogant" and alleging that they have a "king" mindset of ruling over people rather than working with them.

He addressed election rallies at Mala and Kunnakkulam in Thrissur district, as well as in Palakkad. He alleged that the UDF is facing a combined force of the LDF and the BJP in the April 9 Assembly polls. Gandhi alleged that the BJP sees the Congress and the UDF as its main political challenge, and the LDF has a deal with the saffron party. "As proof, PM speaks about God, temples and religion elsewhere, but in Kerala, he does not speak about Sabarimala gold loss involving CPI(M) leaders..."

Voting for Congress to help BJP: Abhishek

SENIOR TMC LEADER Abhishek Banerjee on Monday urged people not to vote for the Congress, claiming it would only strengthen the BJP. Addressing a rally at Jalangi in West Bengal's Murshidabad district, the TMC national general secretary alleged that the Congress has a nexus with the BJP and the Left, and voting for its candidates would split non-BJP votes and benefit the saffron party.

"In 2024, many voted for CPI(M) and Congress as they knew the TMC government would remain till 2026. But this election is not just about giving TMC a fourth victory — it is also about ousting the Band C teams of the BJP and teaching a lesson to those who have stopped your rightful central funds while being in power at the Centre," he said.

Pak threat to Kolkata becomes poll issue

PAKISTAN DEFENCE MINISTER Khawaja Asif's threat to target Kolkata unexpectedly opened a new front in West Bengal's election battle on Monday, allowing the TMC to turn the BJP's campaign themes of nationalism, infiltration and national security back on the saffron party.

Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee and party leader Abhishek Banerjee launched a coordinated attack on Prime Minister Narendra Modi, accusing him and the BJP leadership of maintaining silence over Pakistan's threat to target Kolkata.

For months, the BJP has sought to frame the election around infiltration from Bangladesh, border security, minority appeasement and the charge that the TMC has turned Bengal into a safe haven for illegal migrants. On Monday, the ruling party attempted to seize the same terrain of nationalism and security: If the BJP claims to be the sole custodian of national security and invokes Pakistan and Bangladesh in every election speech, why was the Centre silent when a Pakistani minister directly threatened Kolkata?

Mamata asked why Modi had not uttered a word on the issue in Cooch Behar rally. "You come to Bengal during elections and attack Bengal. But when Pakistan threatens Bengal, you remain silent. Why? You should resign."
